

Most Popular Areas to Buy a 1 Kanal House in Islamabad

There are various factors which play an important role in deciding on area of residence for a particular person. When a person starts looking out for a house in Islamabad, he is bombarded with a large number of advertisements from various societies. In the following lines, we will discuss some of the most popular areas to buy House for rent in Islamabad.

The F and E sectors

The F sectors include F-6,7,8,10 and 11. Some of these areas are the oldest parts of the city. There are open roads with wide streets and security guards looking after almost all streets. F-10 and 11 are relatively recent developments and they offer the latest construction designs and accessories. If you work somewhere in Islamabad, this area will provide you with a peaceful living.

Bani Gala

One of the recent developments in Islamabad, this area provides almost all facilities needed for a reasonable and peaceful life. Some of this area is uneven because it is developed by cutting the rocks and mountains. This area offers houses at a lower price as compared to the F and E sectors.

Bahria Town

This is one of the most popular areas of the twin cities when it comes to buying a 1 Kanal house. Whenever people read Offices for Sale in Islamabad, they just rush to give it a visit. There are certain reasons which force people to buy a house in Bahria Town quickly. This is one of the societies which is properly planned. There is a central commercial area called Civic center around which the whole community is developed. This makes it easier for people to locate any particular area by referring to the Civic center. There are set standards which have to be followed by the contractors from the beginning to the end of the construction. If any contractor does not follow these standards, he is fined and banned by the society. The community is gated with security cameras placed at all entrance and exit points. This provides ample security to the residents of this society. There are many contractors who provide construction services and their offices are located inside the society. This makes it easier for a person to hire them and visit their office if there is any complaint. A large number of eateries have also opened their ventures in the society. There are 4 or 5 access points to the society which makes it easy for people to come in and go out of it at any point in time.

DHA

Located just away from Bahria town, this society also provides a very popular destination for people who want to purchase a 1 Kanal house. Mostly retired Army Personnels are living in the society which means that it has almost flawless security measures. The construction of a bi shopping mall within its vicinity means that people do not have to go far for shopping. A family park along with a central park provides ample facilities for people to keep themselves fit. The prices in this society are much higher as compared to all other areas discussed.

If you are reluctant to invest a huge amount of money on your own, try gharbaar.com. This platform will help you find the suitable property. Search options allow you to segregate the properties according to own criteria. Our expert team also provides reviews on any built property which will include a critical analysis of construction and accessories. The prices offered by this platform are competitive which attracts more and more customers.